NCB website is monitored periodically to address and fix the quality and compatibility issues namely, performance, functionality, broken links, traffic analysis and feedback from visitors. The IT team will also suitably advise the Web Information Manager on these issues.